

Customer Counts

We value the opinions of our customers— the students and parents of the Scottsdale Unified School District. We are always seeking opportunities to provide exceptional customer service and to improve your experiences as our customer. Please take a few moments to share your opinions about our customer service.

Comments:

You may also find this document on our website.

If you would like us to respond, please provide your contact information below:

Name:

Mailing Address: