

Special Education Parents Advisory Council (SEPAC) of Scottsdale

Please join us for our next meeting.

Enhancing Social Success: Programs for our Kids

Linda Kraynak

Doreen Muir

Karen Donmoyer

Julia Whitt

Playground programs, peer sensitivity, Autism awareness, and SUSD Community School Special Needs Camp

Tuesday, November 18th
6:30-8:30 p.m.

Mohave District Annex Kachina Room

8505 E. Valley View Road, Scottsdale 85250-6768

Directions:

From McDonald, go south on Granite Reef to Valley View.

From Chaparral, head north on Granite Reef past Jackrabbit, to Valley View.

Then, east on Valley View to first building on the south side, just past the sports fields.

Map located at www.sepacs.org.

Special Education Parent Advisory Council of Scottsdale's (SEPACS) mission is to encourage a welcoming school culture throughout the Scottsdale Unified School District for students with special needs. SEPACS hosts meetings during the school year on a variety of topics. Visit our website at WWW.SEPACS.ORG for our mission statement, meeting schedule, resources for special education related issues, mail list signup, and a blog for parents to share information.

Questions? Call Shauna at 480.661.0471

The Scottsdale Unified School District neither endorses nor sponsors the organization or activity represented in this material. The distribution or display of this material is provided as a community service.