Application Deadline: February 16, 2018 at 5pm PST

Who: Rising high school seniors who are high-achieving with financial need (apply when you are a junior in high school).

What: Three-week summer residential program on USC's campus and subsequent one-on-one support in the following four areas: career exploration, admission & financial aid guidance, test prep, leadership development – at no cost to you.

When: July 15-August 4, 2018, and ongoing support throughout your senior year.

Where: USC's beautiful, architecturally rich University Park Campus, Los Angeles, California.

Why: "High-achieving students who attend more selective schools graduate at higher rates, earn higher incomes, and are more likely to pursue a graduate degree. In other words, where you go to school matters."

– Jack Kent Cooke Foundation

How: Through a structured curriculum and with the support of a personal Admissions Coach, explore and connect your academic interests and career passions. Engage with guest speakers, industry experts, career specialists and recent college graduates to define your personal pathway to college and beyond.
