

If the drivers are unable to communicate with dispatch due to poor reception with their regular two-way radio, and it is absolutely important that they are able to get through, then a cell phone may be permitted as long as the bus is off the roadway and secure.

From DPS email dated July 6, 2012