

COLLEGE TESTING INFORMATION

You must register early to be assigned to the test centers in the Scottsdale area.

Any Special Education and/or 504 accommodations must be made through College Board or ACT directly several months before the student plans to test.

Day of testing - Bring a calculator (with fresh batteries), admission ticket, photo ID and #2 pencils.
DO NOT bring your cellphone!

District Sponsored PSAT –October 24th during the school day

- Juniors (used to determine National Merit) who wish to test must pay and register at school bookstore. $25 cash/check only made payable to DMHS. Limited spaces available.
- All sophomores are registered and paid for by SUSU.

District Sponsored ACT –February 20th during the school day

- All juniors are registered and paid for by SUSU.
- Only juniors will be allowed to test on this test date.

Most colleges and universities will accept either American College Test (ACT) or Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) scores. Some colleges also require SAT Subject Tests. Many colleges no longer use testing for acceptance though many of these colleges use the scores to help determine merit-based scholarships. Students should consult college catalogs or admissions departments carefully for specific testing requirements.
