

SUSD PARENTVUE QUICK REFERENCE CARD

ParentVUE is a wonderful tool to monitor your child's education. It will provide you with the latest information about the child's attendance and grades as well as information about the child's immunizations, schedules and transcripts.

Once you have established your parent account with the information provided by your school, you can navigate to ParentVue by either visiting: <http://synergyvue.susd.org> and choosing I am a Parent or by clicking the link on any SUSD school's Web site.

After logging on to ParentVue, Parents will see the home page of the portal. The information on the home page includes:

- Child selection links used to select the information viewable for each child.
- Calendars
- Attendance information
- Course information
- Grades
- Health information
- School information
- Student information

In ParentVUE, children linked to a parent account, are listed by their first names at the top of the screen. Click the child's name to view his or her information.

Once that child is selected, the navigation links on the side of screen will display that child's information. You can also set up notifications to e-mail or change your contact information by clicking on the My Account tab.

From here, select how you want the notification to be sent to you and Click Update Account when completed.
